Description

A beautiful 19th century satinwood oval Pembroke table, of elegant proportions and excellent quality. The top is attractively crossbanded and features a central oval panel with fine line inlay, giving a striking visual appeal. The table has twin drop flaps supported by hinged brackets, a single frieze drawer to one end, retaining the original brass ring handle. It stands on slender tapering legs, each terminating in brass caps and castors for ease of movement. Width with leaves up 68cm
