Description

A fine 18th century oak dresser base, featuring a rectangular top above three long drawers, each fitted with original brass drop handles. The front is adorned with a scalloped apron, rising from shaped bracket feet, with an open under-tier shelf providing practical storage. Constructed from solid oak, the piece displays rich colour and patina, with evidence of age and use adding to its character. Item Ref; M-6293B . DIMENSIONS: Height - 97cm / Width - 151cm / Depth - 48cm . CONDITION REPORT: In overall good antique condition, showing expected signs of age. There is surface wear throughout, including age-related marks, scratches, and staining. The pot board shelf shows some staining, and there is splitting to both the front and back of the gallery, with additional splitting and staining throughout the piece. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home.
