Description

An elegant mid-century jewel – 1.6 carats of brilliant cut diamonds set in graceful 18ct gold feathered wings. These exquisite earrings are a superb example of mid-20th century design, crafted in 18ct yellow gold and set with a magnificent spread of sparkling diamonds. Beautifully styled as feathered wings, they feature three graceful rows of brilliant-cut diamonds, totalling approximately 1.6 carats. The effect is both elegant and dramatic, catching the light with every movement. Designed with versatility in mind, the earrings are fitted with posts for pierced ears, but the fittings can also be closed flat to allow comfortable wear on non-pierced ears. Dating from the 1960s, these earrings embody timeless glamour and would make a sensational gift or a superb addition to any jewellery collection.
