Description

Large 19th Century Double Handled Copper Jam Pan This is a lovely looking Pan, the pan was obviously a very treasured piece, it has original Brass handles with robust copper riveting. A pan of this type would have been used in jam making, for dairy creaming and pickling. The Pan is in remarkably good condition for its age and has a charming patina and one dent. The pan is 19" in diameter + the handles and 9" high AW86

Internal Ref: AW86
