Description

A delightful and rare pair of Wedgwood miniature lustre bowls, Z5294 pattern, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones circa 1915. The Blue Lustre exterior features stainings, dark blue mottling, and a continuous gilt frieze of flying geese. Inside, the Orange Lustre ground with crimson mottling is framed by a gilt border of bird silhouettes and centred with a finely hand-painted gilt hummingbird. Measuring 2.8 cm high and 5.6 cm in diameter, these small-scale works were produced in limited numbers and are highly desirable as a matched pair in such fine preservation. Condition: Excellent antique condition. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance.
