Description

A fine Wedgwood Fairyland Lustre octagonal bowl, Z4832 pattern, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones around 1915. The exterior is in Mother-of-Pearl Lustre with pale stainings and mottling, each facet embellished with gilded butterflies. The interior in Orange Lustre with crimson mottling is bordered by butterflies and centred with a decorative medallion, all executed in fine gold. Measuring 5 cm high and 9 cm wide, this bowl reflects the distinctive style that brought Makeig-Jones's work to prominence at international exhibitions in the 1920s. Rare in both form and condition, this is a fine collector's piece. Condition: Excellent antique condition. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance.
