Description

Just a superb mid 17thc Oak Wainscot Armchair, in the original condition you like to find them in....the only small repair it has had, is a small splice to the front of the seat....done a very long time ago and a small brace underneath the seat for support....wonderful original colour, dated 1696, but the chair is earlier.... made from around 1640 and it was probably dated later as a wedding gift or present to someone with the initials E B....the quality of the wood used and the skill of the maker, has produced a very nice chair , that would enhance any early collection of oak furniture...! English C1640-50.
