Description

This is a superb Victorian burr walnut and marquetry coffee table, circa 1870 in date. The table top is oval in shape and features wonderful burr walnut with superb marquetry inlaid decoration. The base is hand carved from solid walnut and the cabriole legs terminate in their original brass castors. There is no mistaking the unique quality and elaborate design, which is certain to make it a talking point in your home and a fine embellishment to your reception room. Provenance: Bishton Hall, Country House sitting in 25 acres of beautiful gardens in the centre of rustic Staffordshire and home of the Northcote family. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully restored in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 51 cm x Width 132 cm x Depth 100 cm Dimensions in inches: Height 1 foot, 8 inches x Width 4 foot, 4 inches x Depth 3 foot, 3 inches Walnut The Walnut woods are probably the most recognisable and popular of all the exotic woods, having been used in furniture making for many centuries. Walnut veneer was highly priced and the cost would reflect the 'fanciness' of the veneer – the more decorative, then the more ex...
