Description

This is a superb quality pair of majestic bronze eagles mounted on solid hardwood shields. Rare to find and in great condition these very heavy solid bronze plaques date from around 1930 and would have given great gravitas at the entrance to a branch of Barclays Bank at one time. The plaques are a great size at 2ft (61 cms) in height and would look great in any indoor or outdoor setting. The eagles can easily be detached from the wooden plaques for mounting directly elsewhere if preferred. UK insured delivery is £20.
