Description

A circular porcelain plate, characteristic of the Chinese Famille Rose style, notable for its white ground and vibrant overglaze enamel decoration. The central well of the plate features a single bird, rendered in earthy tones, perched amidst an array of colorful blossoms including prominent pink peonies, red poppies, and blue and green foliage, all depicted with soft, opaque enamels. A border of smaller, similarly styled floral and foliate motifs encircles the rim of the plate, which is subtly edged with a thin, contrasting band. The composition fills the surface with naturalistic elements, showcasing the distinctive palette and detailed brushwork associated with this renowned porcelain tradition. Dimensions: 32 cm/ 12.7"
