Description

A good example of an 18th Century Georgian Sterling Silver meat skewer. It has a ring handle with a decorative shell shaped collar below. The skewer is good quality and made from a heavy gauge silver, weighing approximately 93g. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1794, Joseph Smith. It is in good condition with a very clear hallmark. There are no major damages but a possible old repair near the tip (see photo). There are some faint surface scratches and a few light marks but nothing detrimental and it displays beautifully. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Length : 12 1/2" / 32cm Width : 1" / 2.5cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
