Description

A good quality set of open pigeon holes dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. They are made from mahogany with lovely hand cut dovetail joints. There are 8 equally sized pigeon holes that could be suited to a variety of uses. It is in very good condition. It is generally clean and tidy and is certainly a very usable piece. There are some minor marks and knocks and signs of age and use but no major damages and it displays well.
