Description

This very well-detailed VICTORIAN RELIEF MOULDED STONEWARE JUG was made at the VILLA POTTERY, COBRIDGE by JONES & WALLEY around 1850. The base bears an impressed, applied cartouche with the details: Published July 1, 1849 by Jones & Walley, Cobridge. GIPSEY 24. This short-lived Factory specialised in Relief Moulded Stoneware Jugs. The details of the GIPSEY Encampment on this Jug are notable. One side shows a Mother and two children within a tent, alongside a dog, two gentlemen and a barrel of ale. The other shows a cauldron hung over an open fire. The condition is good. There is a tiny, thin sliver of old restoration to the inside lip. Height: 6.25 inches (16 cm) Express delivery within the UK is included. Please email for Overseas Shipping costs.
