Description

Antique Large Long Pine Refectory Dining Table – Kitchen Farmhouse Table c.1900 A charming and practical antique table dating from the late 19th to early 20th century, with a beautifully patinated pine top. Its long, narrow proportions and rustic character make it ideal as a kitchen dining or serving table, blending seamlessly into both traditional and eclectic interiors. The base retains traces of old, worn white paint, adding to its farmhouse appeal. Features & Craftsmanship Pine construction with a richly aged surface and natural patina Strong, tight joints for stability and everyday durability Warm tones and honest wear reflecting decades of use Dimensions Width: 243cm Depth: 67cm Height: 76cm Kneehole Height: 62cm Condition Report In good antique condition, displaying the hallmarks of genuine age and use: historic knocks, surface wear, old repairs, and alterations. The top and base may not have begun life together, but both are of the period and complement each other very well. Some historic, extinct woodworm holes have been treated for reassurance.
