Description

A Chinese 19th Century Apple Green Crackle Glazed Pear Shaped Vase This is an elegant and well-proportioned Chinese vase featuring a vibrant, single-colour glaze. The vase has a classic baluster form, with a full, rounded body that tapers gently toward a cylindrical neck. The neck flares out gracefully into a wide, dish-shaped mouth. The most striking feature is the glaze, a brilliant "apple green" or emerald green hue. The glaze has a lustrous, high-gloss finish with a notable "crackle" effect, which is a desirable characteristic in many types of Chinese ceramics. The crackle is fine and evenly distributed, giving the surface a rich texture and visual depth. Period:- Qing Dynasty Height:- 23 cm approx Condition:- Good
