Description

A lovely example of an early 20th Century oak filing cabinet with an attractive tambour front. It is an unusual large size with two vertical sections inside and 10 shelves. It is very well made and a good quality piece with its original working key. It is in good condition for its age and is a very usable piece. The tambour front slides smoothly and the shelves are clean and tidy. It is not without signs of age and use, some small marks and knocks and some chips to the front of the shelves (see photos) but nothing detrimental and it displays well. Approximate Measurements : Height : 35 1/2" (90cm) Width : 34 1/2" (88cm) Depth : 16" (41cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
