Description

One of the rarest of all Omega Automatics ever made the Omega Bumper Automatic 354 in solid 18ct rose gold Spider Leg case. The diameter is just over 34.5mm excluding the crown. The movement is Omega's highly reliable calibre 354 fully automatic Bumper movement. An Omega "bumper" is a vintage Omega that has a "bumper" automatic movement rather than a full rotation rotor automatic. The oscillating weight makes a partial rotation before "bumping" into a cushioning spring. This is the earliest type of automatic movement. The beautiful two tone dial is perfect having just been professionally restored. It has the French Eagles Head 18ct gold hallmarks to the inside of the case back and on one of the beautiful spider leg lugs. The case is in fabulous condition all we have done is a light hand polish with some jewellers rouge to bring out the colour of the solid 18ct rose gold. If you are wondering why it does not have an Omega symbol on the winding crown its because the Omega logo crown was not introduced until later. This is the correct original crown. The watch has just been fully serviced and is guaranteed to be genuine Omega in all respects. It is keeping time to wi...
