Description

This is a fabulous pair of Sheraton Revival card and tea tables, crafted in the early 20th century. Made from richly figured mahogany with intricate satinwood inlays, these tables offer both function and refinement. Each table features a fold-over top that opens to reveal either a polished mahogany surface or a green baize-lined interior, ideal for card games or afternoon tea. The pedestal bases with quadruple splayed legs and original brass castors reflect classic Sheraton styling and superior craftsmanship. Perfect drawing room, library, or hallway. circa 1930
