Description

A striking 19th century copy of a German 16th century etched suit of armour, dating to around 1880. This full suit is finely detailed with etched floral and foliate designs throughout, faithfully replicating the craftsmanship of the Renaissance period. Mounted on a wooden display plinth, this impressive decorative piece is ideal for period interiors, collections, or as a statement feature in a hallway, library, or entrance. While decorative, it retains the authentic form and proportions of original battle armour, making it highly desirable to collectors and enthusiasts alike.
