Description

Fascinating item for the collector. Perfect addition to the library or desk of a person of taste. A heavy and high quality antiquarian book binding (dating to at least the early 18th century and likely a lot earlier) complete with engraved silver mounts with scrolling design and central cartouche with initials. This has been later converted in the 19th century to a covetable and practical blotter with the addition of a fine red morocco leather back. Marbled paper interior. Tooled exterior and gilt tooled interior. Measures (closed) 21 x 29 cm
