Description

A very nice example of an early 19thc pole-lathe turned taper vase for keeping the wax tapers in....it is made of fruitwood and has delicate "incised " ring decoration and of course the turners pole -lathe marks are clearly seen on the underneath, which is always pleasing....in very good condition with a fine colour you always get from fruitwood. English. C1800-20.

Internal Ref: MS 8309
