Description

A Liberty & Co silver & enamel stickpin with a freshwater pearl. This is a beautiful example of Liberty jewellery. The enamel is in excellent condition and the pearl just adds the finishing touch. On the reverse is the Liberty mark, London mark, lion and a date letter, sadly I have not been able to read the date letter, it is very small. I am guessing this is very late 19th century early 20th century, very art nouveau in design. Box is included. L 6 cm Enamel top 1 cm x 1cm
