Description

An elegant Georgian two-drawer Lowboy - reimagined with a decorative twist and our unique hand-painted finish
 Date: English, 18th Century Georgian era Provenance: England Condition: Good Materials: Original frame later specialist paint finish; original brass drop handles and backplates Top: Hand-painted faux marble design in mottled powdery grey-blue and white Base: Individually mixed paint colours with hand-painted decorative design
 Dimensions: H: 69cm (27.2") | W: 78cm (30.7") | D: 48cm (18.9") Delivery: Mainland UK included (excludes Trade purchases) Timeless Georgian Elegance This Lowboy was crafted during a time of profound transformation - a time of Enlightenment, empire, and artistic achievement - that legacy is in its grain and it echoes that spirit with elegant proportions and enduring materials. Its refined carcass work - the decorative apron below the drawers and the canted shape to the legs - is balanced by practical details: twin drawers with original drop handles. You can see softened corners, faint grain telegraphing beneath the paint, and a calm, even sheen rather than gloss. This is the look of a well-kept survivor - quietly sophisticated, never cont...
