Description

This superb raw and rustic solid oak centre table features a beautifully bleached light oak finish, giving it a fresh and natural appearance while preserving the charm of the wood's grain. It is in good condition, showcasing its enduring quality and the skill of its maker. The table has an elegant oval-shaped top that can be easily lifted off for transport, secured by screws for added stability. The gently carved edging around the tabletop adds an extra touch of refinement to the piece. Beneath the tabletop, the base boasts a large, intricately carved support column that commands attention with its impressive detail. The four sculpted legs feature graceful curves and are crowned with oversized lion's paw feet, each mounted on sturdy casters for mobility. The carving on both the base and feet is of exceptional quality, displaying remarkable attention to detail that enhances the rustic charm of the table while maintaining its classic appeal. This centre table would make a striking statement piece in any room, serving as a perfect focal point for your space. The blend of elegant carving, rich oak wood, and unique design makes it a standout choice for both traditional and ...
