Description

A late 19th century pine cricket table of small proportions, with a lovely pale colour and just the right amount of wear to the timber. The top is constructed from two pieces of pine and has a rounded over edge. The tapered chamfered legs are united by subtly shaped stretchers. A truly lovely little table. This charming little table is small in diameter but just the right height for a lamp table or bedside table. Cricket tables seem to be hard to find at the moment, so I was delighted to come across this lovely example. Condition: Surface wear and patina in accordance with age and use, including some burn marks to the top. The table is in good solid condition. Mainland UK delivery (excluding the Scottish highlands) is included in the price - if you would like a quote for delivery elsewhere, or if you would like to collect the item yourself, please get in touch. Delivery of furniture usually takes between 7 and 21 days from order, though can sometimes take longer. If you need an item by a certain date please speak to us prior to ordering and we'll try to help.
