Description

Early 19th Century Cherrywood Biedermeier 3 Drawer Commode Chest 128cm, C1820. An impressive 3 drawer Biedermeier chest commode, an early 19th century Southern Germany Empire chest of drawers, constructed from well figured cherrywood with imposing bronze handles, measuring 128cm wide. A very fine antique chest commode, structurally excellent, just back from our workshop to address any loose joints and some minor veneer losses, otherwise untouched and showing evidence of its timeworn appearance, patination which adds authenticity and character. Arranged as 1 shallow over 2 deep drawers, complemented with twin ebonised columns and further ebonised upper and lower edges. A striking and versatile chest commode for a day or bedroom, hallway or kitchen breakfast room etc., a superbly stylish Empire chest commode of elegant proportions. Dimensions Width 128cm Depth 63cm Height 78cm A splendid antique chest commode of considerable decorative appeal, both function and form that can enhance a classic or contemporary space.
