Description

Dimensions: * Diameter: 120 cm * Height: 72 cm
