Description

Antique 19th Century Mahogany Partners Desk with Tooled Leather Top This exceptional 19th century mahogany partners desk is a fine example of Victorian craftsmanship and elegance. Constructed in rich, warm mahogany, the desk features a striking pale green tooled leather writing surface, bordered with intricate gilt tooling, offering both durability and classic style. The front of the desk boasts nine drawers, providing ample storage for documents, stationery, and essentials, while the reverse side is designed with a combination of drawers and cupboards, making it a true partners desk – practical for use by two people. Each drawer is finished with turned wooden knobs and inset brass escutcheons, enhancing the desk's traditional aesthetic. Adding to its authenticity and provenance, this desk carries the maker's label of J. Helmsden, Cabinetmaker, a respected name in fine 19th century furniture craftsmanship. Perfect for a period study, home office, or library, this antique mahogany partners desk combines utility with timeless design. A rare and highly collectible piece, it reflects the grandeur and functionality of Victorian-era furniture. Key Features: • 19th century mahog...
