Description

Type of artwork: Original Watercolour Painting Surface: Paper Artist and signature: Signed W C Smith (William Collingwood Smith) A fine 19th-century watercolour by William Collingwood Smith RI (1815–1887), depicting a tranquil estuary scene at sunset. The composition shows a tree-lined riverside lane with cottages in the foreground, leading the eye towards still waters where a ship lies at anchor. A distant church spire and fading evening sky complete the atmospheric view. Collingwood Smith was a respected Victorian watercolourist and marine painter, exhibiting widely throughout his career, particularly at the Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolours, where he later served as Vice-President. He is celebrated for his coastal and river landscapes, often painted with soft washes and a keen sense of atmosphere, as seen in this example. Approximate age of artwork: Mid-late 19th century (c.1860–1880) Is the artwork Framed or Mounted: original Gold Coloured Mount and Cellophane Wrapped for Protection Condition report: The artwork is considered to be in fair to good condition.
