Description

Breton Oak Bed, Circa 1890 – UK Double. Bring a touch of French heritage into your home with this exquisite Breton bed, crafted in solid oak around 1890. Rich in character and artistry, it features deeply carved panels with traditional foliate motifs and a central scene of Breton figures beneath a tree, a hallmark of the region's craftsmanship. The headboard rises with elegant detail, crowned by finely worked carving, while the footboard is framed with turned posts and decorative panels that reflect the pride and skill of 19th-century Breton artisans. Sized to fit a UK double mattress, this bed is as practical as it is beautiful – a true marriage of history and function. With over 130 years of character, it will bring warmth, charm, and a sense of timeless romance to any period or country-style interior. The bed comes with a base for the mattress to sit on.
