Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive, large vintage English sterling silver communion chalice and paten set; an addition to our diverse religious silverware collection. This exceptional two piece vintage sterling silver communion set consists of a chalice and paten/diskos. The silver chalice has a circular rounded form to a knopped pedestal and spreading circular foot. The paten has a plain circular form to a plain circular sunken well. The surface of the paten and chalice have a subtle planished finish. The underside of the chalice foot bears the engraved inscription 'To the glory of God and in abiding memory of Austen D. Norton, March 3rd 1967*'. The drinking vessel of the chalice retains the original gilding. This exceptional communion set is a large example for its type. This planished silver chalice and paten set is a profound gift for sacred milestones, suited to ordinations, church anniversaries, clergy retirements or memorial dedications. Meticulously crafted, it endures as a timeless symbol of faith and devotion. Condition This vintage silver communion set is an exceptional gauge of silver, exceptional quality and in exceptional presentation condition. Fu...
