Description

A very attractive antique 18th Century oak housekeeper's cupboard. The oak housekeeper's cupboard has a moulded cornice top above the two door cupboard to the top section. The cupboard doors unlock to reveal a hanging rail. The bottom section is an arrangement of two short over two long drawers, each with brass drop handles and neat escutcheon. The three drawers above being dummy drawers. Glorious deep colour and grain throughout. The housekeeper's cupboard comes apart in two sections, for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-6331 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 191cm / Width - 135cm / Depth - 54cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, showing typical signs of age and use. The piece has surface wear, including marks and scratches throughout, historic woodworm and repairs to the back, and some staining to the interior. Despite these age-related characteristics, it remains solid and retains its original charm. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos...
