Description

George III Cuban Mahogany Chest of Drawers c.1780 A late 18th century North Country chest of drawers in well-figured Cuban mahogany. Two short drawers over three long, all cockbeaded and fitted with brass swan-neck handles. Fluted corner pilasters to each side, raised on shaped bracket feet. The timber has a good rich colour and a natural aged surface. It has some marks and wear, as you'd expect — including a few blemishes to the top and splits to each side panel — but it's structurally sound and the drawers run well. Removed from a Wiltshire manor house. Measurements: Height: 94 cm Width: 115 cm Depth: 55 cm
