Description

This antique French farmhouse coffee table, circa 1900, is beautifully crafted in solid cherrywood and retains its original warm honey patina. The rectangular plank top with rounded edges is supported on sturdy square tapered legs, combining rustic charm with simple elegance. To the front is a central drawer with its original turned wooden knob, providing practical storage for living spaces. The cherrywood grain displays rich natural tones and the honest wear of age, giving the table a characterful yet timeless appeal.
