Description

1950's Ruby cocktail ring Embellished with 16 round cut natural rubies of approx 10pts in size. They are mounted on a very fluid setting allowing lots of light in and around the stones. The setting has three textured ribbons of silver giving shape and style. The overall effect is that of a very eye catching ring whilst a large mount it is easy to wear ... even as a pinky ring!! It is mounted in silver however it has no makers mark and the silver mark is truly rubbed ... suggesting this was someone's very special and favourite ring to wear! It is confirmed as silver following being tested. A truly stunning amount of rubies for a fraction of the price of the metal were gold. Size K
