Description

An exquisite late 18th-century Georgian mahogany and satinwood inlaid chest-on-stand. This is a truly superior example, embodying the refined elegance of the Georgian period. Constructed from beautifully figured mahogany, the piece showcases a rich, warm patina that highlights the natural grain and depth of the timber. The cabinetmaker's skill is evident in the meticulous satinwood inlays, with the chest featuring a series of graduated drawers fitted with elegant brass swan-neck handles, a hallmark of Georgian design. The upper section comprises four long drawers, their surfaces adorned with delicate marquetry, while the lower stand, featuring three drawers flanking a central arched apron, is supported by gracefully curved cabriole legs. The architectural cornice, with its dentil moulding, crowns the piece, lending it a stately presence. This exceptional antique is in very good, antique condition with expected signs of age and use, retaining its original hardware and finishes with evidence of historic repairs, consistent with age and use.
