Description

A refined Georgian bedside commode dating to around the turn of the 19th century, crafted in mahogany with a gallery top featuring shaped pierced handles, above a double door cupboard and lower converted drawer section. Compact and classically proportioned with a warm patina and balanced form which would work beautifully as a bedside cabinet, lamp table or hall table with useful storage. Presented in very good antique condition with some attractive aged surface wear. The swan-neck handle is a later replacement. Structurally solid, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1800. H: 76.5 W: 54.5 D: 48.5 cm
