

SA1164199

19th Century Bronze of Venus and Cupid by Paul Émile Machault (1800–1886)

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1164199*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 71 cm (28.0")

Width = 29 cm (11.4")

Depth = 20 cm (7.9")

Description

An elegant allegorical bronze by French sculptor Paul Émile Machault, capturing the warmth, beauty, and abundance of summer through the timeless figures of Venus and Cupid. Date: Circa 1860–1880 Origin: France Material: Cast bronze with rich mid-brown patina Features: Oval base signed Machault, finely modelled figures of Venus and Cupid, allegorical theme representing Summer Condition: Excellent antique condition; minor surface wear consistent with age Dimensions Overall: H: 71cm (28") | W: 29cm (11.4") | D: 20.5cm (8.1") Dimensions of Oval Base: W: 29cm (11.4") | D: 20.5cm (8.1") Delivery: Not included - please use the Request Delivery Quote feature before completing your order Heritage & Craftsmanship Paul Émile Machault (1800–1886) was a 19th-century French sculptor known for his allegorical and mythological works, often produced in bronze or terracotta. His style reflects the academic traditions of the period - idealised anatomy, graceful drapery, and a balance between naturalism and classical form. This fine bronze depicts Venus, goddess of love and beauty, with her son Cupid, the bringer of desire. In 19th-century decorative arts, such pairings were often used to...

Internal Ref: GP070

Seller Details

Whites Antiques

Unit 10 The Vinery Arundel Road Poling West Sussex BN18 9PY
United Kingdom

Tel: 07717 321455

International Tel: +44 7717 321455

