Description

A very well-proportioned English 'drop-dial' wall clock in lovely condition. The 8 day duration, gut fusee movement with Anchor Recoil escapement, knopped pillars and shouldered plates. Behind a 10" diameter, bowed, painted iron dial with it's original cream white background, outer divided minute track with diamond quarters, inner, Roman hour numerals and the upper centre bearing the maker's signature of "WICKES Clements Lane & Lombard Street" and below the winding hole: "LONDON". The matching blued steel hands are 'open moon' style. Behind a cast brass, locking, hinged bezel with a high bowed glass. Contained in a mahogany 'drop' case with a one-piece, narrow dial surround and a well-figured short trunk the front of which has brass inlay depicting a simple floral scroll. The rounded bottom has a conforming locking and cockbeaded door and the right side also has a hinged access door. * This really is not just a good quality and most original clock. Aesthetically, it is a small, very, very attractive clock and - it will outlast us all - as it has outlasted its original owners, it would a be a great heirloom and will always suit even the most modern home.
