There are pieces that simply exist, and there are pieces that perform. This Georgian oak table - with its canted legs, hand-detailed edges, and original brass swan-neck handles - belongs firmly in the latter category. Restored with care in our West Sussex workshops, it now wears our Powdery Distressed Mottled Green Specialist Finish: a labour-intensive, hand-layered process that turns light into a co-conspirator. The Patina of Possibility. The base tone is a true antique green - softly mottled and gently powdery, with undertones that shift in changing light. Our palette draws from Georgian and C...
