Description

1920s Art Deco Platinum, Diamond & Pearl Drop Earrings A glamorous pair of original Art Deco earrings, circa 1920, finely crafted in platinum. Each earring is designed as a bold round cluster, pavé-set with fifty-six mixed-cut diamonds (approx. 5.00 carats per earring), suspending a large cultured saltwater pearl drop. The pearls, beautifully matched, measure approximately 12.5mm x 17.5mm and display a classic soft luster that complements the brilliance of the diamonds. • Diamonds: Approx. 10.00 carats total, mixed cuts • Pearls: Cultured saltwater, approx. 12.5mm x 17.5mm • Metal: Platinum (assessed, no visible hallmarks) • Gross Weight: 32.5 grams • Fittings: Clip-on The striking combination of large lustrous pearls and significant diamond weight makes these earrings a true statement of 1920s Art Deco luxury – both elegant and timeless.
