Description

Antique Law Books – Law Journal & Reports, 1871–1915 (21 Volumes) A run of 21 antique legal volumes, chiefly The Law Journal Reports together with The Law Times Reports and a French Dalloz Jurisprudence (1877). The dates range from 1871 through to 1915 and cover divisions including Common Law, Equity, Probate and Magistrates' Cases. The books are bound in half calf leather with marbled boards, typical of the period. Condition is generally worn: rubbing and scuffing to bindings, cracking to some joints, losses to leather title labels, with foxing, spotting and some damp marks internally. Several volumes retain a musky odour from storage. Despite the wear, they form a large and impressive library group, suitable for display in a legal office, library, or study. Dimensions: tallest volume approx. 27.5 cm high × 23 cm wide.
