Description

Antique George W. Shiebler Sterling Silver Heart-Shaped Pin Cushion – 19th Century This exquisite antique pin cushion is a fine example of 19th-century American silver craftsmanship by the renowned silversmith George W. Shiebler. The cushion features a raised floral and leaf design in sterling silver, forming a heart-shaped frame around the deep blue velvet cushion top. A charming and functional piece for collectors of antique sewing tools or silverware. • Maker: George W. Shiebler & Co. • Era: Circa late 19th century • Material: Sterling Silver (tested and marked) • Design: Raised floral and leaf motif • Shape: Heart • Dimensions: Approx. 4.5" tall x 4" wide (11.43 cm x 10.16 cm) • Condition: Excellent antique condition with age-appropriate patina. Velvet is slightly worn, consistent with age. No major dents or damage. A rare and beautiful piece – perfect for display or as a special gift for the collector in your life.
