Description

This antique 19th-century ebonised desk, made by Wilkinson & Son, is a very special and rare example of fine craftsmanship. Exceptionally well made and of the finest quality, it features a beautiful green leather top framed by a small raised brass gallery, adding both elegance and character. The desk offers excellent functionality with a total of nine drawers—four on either side and one larger central drawer—each retaining its original brass handles and fittings. It stands proudly on turned legs, giving it both presence and balance. A highly desirable and rare find, this desk has been carefully preserved and remains in good condition. Perfect for a study, office, or living space, it combines practicality with sophistication, making it a true statement piece for any home.
