Description

An antique 19th century brass and copper coal scuttle, beautifully crafted and of very good quality. The piece is stood on decorative brass feet, giving it both elegance and stability, while the shaped carrying handle to the top makes it practical and easy to move. Each side is adorned with finely detailed lion face decorations, adding charm and a touch of grandeur to the design. This versatile piece is not only a functional coal or wood holder for a fireplace but also makes a stunning decorative item in its own right. It could be repurposed as a unique flower planter, bringing character and history into any interior. In good condition, the brass and copper have developed a lovely patina over time, enhancing its antique appeal. A gorgeous piece of history, this coal scuttle is a rare and desirable find that would make the perfect addition to any home.
