Description

Dating to 1883 this Victorian Marble Mantle clock is a beautiful example of its type, with a commemorative plaque detailing its history. Originally a gift to a Mr C.H.Fordham (Organist) on the occasion of his wedding in December 1883, it was given to him by the choir of the Guisbrough Parish church in North Yorkshire, England. This Mantle clock is in wonderful condition, it comes with all original features including a quality 8 day Movement by J.J.S, original glass door, and a clean porcelain clock face with roman numerals. Please study the pictures and don't hesitate to ask any questions you may have. Worldwide delivery available.
