Description

This antique 20th-century glazed display cabinet, crafted from mahogany, is a very fine and desirable example of quality craftsmanship. Of the finest quality, it is beautifully designed and well made, showcasing a gorgeous natural grain and rich colour enhanced by elegant satinwood stringing inlay throughout. The cabinet stands gracefully on tapered legs with a useful shelf to the base, while the unique curved glass section to the centre adds a distinctive and refined touch. Inside, two fixed shelves provide an ideal space for displaying treasured items, making the piece both functional and decorative. Carefully preserved and in good condition, this display cabinet is a perfect addition to any home, combining timeless elegance, practicality, and exceptional style.
