Description

~ French - Circa 1890 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A richly decorative French mantel clock, finely modelled in gilt bronze and mounted with exquisite Sèvres style porcelain with a cream ground. The central porcelain panel depicts an elegantly attired couple in 18th-century dress, seated in a pastoral setting, evoking the romance of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette. An oval portrait miniature below shows a finely dressed lady in powdered wig and décolleté gown, painted in the style of Marie Antoinette. To the top of the clock is a porcelain urn, delicately painted with an image of the lady, the base of the urn encircled by a garland of floral sprays. The dial is beautifully decorated with gilt highlights and features Roman numerals within a gilt chapter ring. At the centre is a finely painted porcelain reserve depicting Cupid as a cherub, shown with wings outstretched, a quiver of arrows at his side, and holding a floral garland — a charming symbol of love and playful mischief. The gilt hands are elegantly pierced in the Louis XVI style, complementing the richly cast gilt bronze bezel with its beaded surround, the bezel is fitted with convex glass. The di...
