

SA1165410

Platinum and Diamond Art Nouveau Necklace c. 1900

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1165410*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A very beautiful and finely made Art Nouveau pendant with original full platinum openwork chain and the platinum drop and petals set with seven old mine cut and rose cut natural diamonds and one large old mine cut natural diamond, all having wonderful clarity (colour H-J). The total diamond weight is approximately 0.8 carats. The principal central diamond is approximately 0.30 carats and all eight diamonds have brilliant sparkle and fire..In excellent original condition without damage or repairs. The chain stamped 950 for Platinum..The pendant sits very comfortably when worn and is a lovely, feminine and timeless piece of late Victorian, early Edwardian Art Nouveau jewellery made in c.1900. A good quality presentation box and guaranteed next day and fully insured Royal Mail service to all UK addresses are included in our price. We can also gift wrap on request. Length of chain is 21 cm Length of pendant is 3.5 cm

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266