Description

Beautiful Mid 18th (George III) Circa 1766 Mahogany Cases Twin Fusee Bracket Clock With Verge Escapement & Finely Engraved Back Plate. Brass Dial with Silvered Chapter Ring, Fast/Slow, Strike/Silent & Name Plate for Thomas Field. Originally from London where he was Appreciated in 1744, he moved to Bath (Somerset) in 1766 where he succeeded Henry Simpson (1) until 1812. The 8 Day Twin Fusee (Cable) would seem to have been well looked after over the last 250 odd years. On Testing, it keeps good time and performs well Striking the Number of Hours on the O'Clock. The Mahogany Case is Classical and Elegant With Attractive Lacquered Brass Beading & Carry Handle. Plus Great Pagination from Centuries of Love. Height 15in or 38cm Without Handle (43cm With Handle). Please Contact Robert Via Messaging or on 07899 058752 to Discuss. Viewing By Appointment Welcome. Should you Require Shipping, Please Supply Your Postcode for Options & Costs.
